If you have ever seen a child in the agony of croup, you can appreciate the gratitude of the mothers who know that One Minute Cough Cure relieves their little ones as quickly as it is administered. Many homes in this city are never without it.—Boschert & Williams.

Shaw.

Monday March 22, 1897.—The scarcity of houses, and the restored confidence among the people occasioned by the election of McKinley has stimulated many to invest their honest dollars in building enterprises. Among those who are erecting new buildings, we mention Lon. and Norman Woods, Oscar Knetzer, Will Hamm, David Hoffman, Jas. Mefford and John Guss. New buildings recently completed are now occupied by Lisle Rice, Ed. Cline and Nick Mitchell.

The Shaw saw mill is running at full blast every day and hardly able to keep up with the demand for lumber.

Mrs. Maggie Burdette (Nesbit) arrived at home from Oklahoma last Tuesday for a short visit among relatives and friends.

Our popular deputy County Treasurer, W. H. Nation was circulating among his old friends, political and otherwise, last Sunday.

Rev. J. C. Saunders delivered one of his usual instructive sermons to a large and interested audience at the Christian church last Sunday.

Mrs. Locky Mathes made a few days visit among friends and relatives up on Big Creek. Locky remained at home grubbing out stumps on their Missouri farm.

We are informed the township examination held at the school house last Saturday was satisfactory in every particular. The examiners and the examinees are well pleased with the result.

Beamer and Fanatia make regular shipments of hogs and cattle to the Kansas City markets and are prepared to receive stock at any time. They will ship another car load of hogs tomorrow.

One minute is all the time necessary to decide from personal experience that One Minute Cough Cure does what its name implies.—Boschert & Williams.

Union Valley.

Monday March 22, 1897.—Miss Lizzie Frazier, our county superintendent and one of our former teachers at this place made our school a short but pleasant call last Tuesday evening.

Bert Clatfelter is working for John McCowan.

Miss Mae Herman visited relatives and friends at Earlton last Saturday.

Henry Clatfelter's sale last Tuesday was well attended and everything sold well.

Sam McCowan and family spent last

Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McCowan.

A musical entertainment is announced for Wednesday evening at the school house.

Mrs. Lizzie Kepley spent the former part of last week visiting relatives in this neighborhood.

Miss Myrtle Biggs visited friends and took the township examination at Earlton last Saturday.

Preaching at the F. B. church Sunday afternoon April 4th at 3 o'clock by Rev. Strope of Chanute.

Misses Rosa Boweas, Addie Hodgden, Myrtle Biggs and Messrs Fred Bowers and W. S. Biggs were the guests of L. P. Terry and family last Sunday.

Last Saturday while driving to their grandmother's in a cart, little Bert and George Kepley met with a serious accident. The horse they were driving became frightened and ran, throwing Bert between the seat and wheel of the cart, badly injuring his head. He was unconscious when taken from the cart. Dr. Postlethwaite was called and pronounced the wounds as not being dangerous. At this writing he is progressing all right.

Torturing, itching, scaly skin eruptions, burns and scalds are soothed at once and promptly healed by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the best known cure for piles.—Boschert & Williams.

Rollin.

Monday March 22, 1897.—Farmers are very much behind with their work on account of too much rain.

Mr. Gingrich is baling hay to ship. Will Burghart's children have the measles.

Freddie Rettig has not improved any and is still very low.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burghart of Leanna spent Sunday with Fred's mother, Mrs. Mary Burghart.

Byron Bower has returned home after spending a week in Chanute where he has been having his eyes treated.

Dr. Rudbeck with the Misses Stafford, Leona Beach and Nellie Beatty were calling on the sick of this neighborhood Sunday.

A Mr. King of Mo. has bought a lot and is building in Rollin. We understand he will start a saw mill sometime in the future.

Born: To Mr. and Mrs. Will Burghart March 16, a daughter. Both mother and child are doing well, and they think by careful nursing Will will recover.

Don't allow the lungs to become impaired by the continuous irritation of a cough. It is easier to prevent consumption than to cure it. One Minute Cough Cure taken early, will ward off any fatal lung trouble.—Boschert & Williams.

St. Paul.

Wednesday, March 24.—Rev. and Mrs. L. D. Coring returned from the conference at Pittsburg last Friday. He was well liked by all, and has been appointed this charge for another year.
